Dear Parents,

Martial Arts Program – Years 2, 3 and 4

We are pleased to continue the Martial Arts Program to the students in Years 2 & 3 and 4. The children will have the opportunity of experiencing the basic concepts of martial arts as well as learn self-body awareness and mental and physical discipline. The program will be conducted by Kay Yang, a Tae Kwon Do Master from Kang’s Tae Kwon Do Academy, with over 10 years of experience as a coach (Australian Tae Kwon Do Team) and athlete, achieving a bronze medal in a world championship.

Participants will be requested to wear sports uniform during the classes. Martial arts uniforms will be offered by the coaching provider as a separate optional purchase of $100.00

Time: 3:40pm – 4:40pm
Cost: $180.00 (Charged to school fees, includes 7 coaching lessons, a graduation day on the last week and a martial arts belt and badge to be handed to each participant at the end of the term.)
Day: Monday
Dates: October 31, November 7, 14, 21, 28, December 5, 12

Please note: The classes will run in the school hall or undercroft if it is not possible to use this facility. There will be no cancellations.

Please indicate if your child would be interested in participating by completing the form below and returning to Reception.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Luiz Ramalho
Sports Co-ordinator
