Understanding Jewish ethics is the essence of understanding Judaism. Participants will explore Jewish views on human behaviour and ethical dilemmas in modern life.

The course is organised thematically and has been tailored to suit the interests of Australian learners. Topics include Respect for Human Life, Justice, Civil Disobedience, Organ Transplant, Humility, Euthanasia and Business Ethics.

Classes begin on Tuesday 26 February at North Shore Synagogue at 7.30pm.

Code ETJL-6 | 15 weeks | $375
Tue 26 Feb - Tue 2 Jul | 7:30PM - 9:45PM

Dramas: The History of the Jewish People will be offered in the second half of the year.

For enrolment and information about the Melton Mini-School visit sydney.edu.au/cce/course/etjl