Writing Ku-ring-gai History Competitions

The Ku-ring-gai Historical Society, as part of its 50th anniversary celebrations, is running a series of history writing competitions. They are open to adults, students living in Ku-ring-gai, and students attending Ku-ring-gai schools.

There are five competitions covering various age groups and prizes range from $50 to $500.

Competition tasks are as follows:

- Primary Years 3 - 4: Design a “Then and Now” poster about a place in Ku-ring-gai
- Primary Years 5 - 6: Write an essay on a person of historic importance to the Ku-ring-gai area
- Secondary Years 7 – 9: Write an essay on a place, community or event of historical importance in Ku-ring-gai
- Secondary Years 10 – 12: Write an essay on the impact on Ku-ring-gai of an Australian or International historical event.
- Adults: Write an essay on a statement about Ku-ring-gai

Prospective entrants might like to view a display of relevant historical information in the foyer of Gordon Library.

Complete details of how to enter, the competition tasks, entry forms, and terms and conditions can be downloaded from the Ku-ring-gai Historical Society website www.khs.org.au. Enquiries should be directed to competition@khs.org.au
