JSA presents “I SPEAK MY MIND”

on Sunday 28th October at 7.30 pm

The Rights and Obligations of Belonging

Professor Lisa Jackson Pulver

Professor Pulver is a Jewish Indigenous woman who was the first Aboriginal Australian to receive a PhD in medicine from the University of Sydney.

She is the director of the Muru Marri Indigenous Health Unit, holds the Inaugural Chair of Indigenous Health and is a Professor of Public Health at the University of NSW, and last year received an AM.

She is also the founder of Shalom Gamarada, which offers scholarships with residence at Shalom College for Indigenous students studying at UNSW, and she is the President of Newtown Synagogue.

at North Shore Temple Emanuel,
28 Chatswood Ave, Chatswood, 9419 7011

$5 donation, free for students and unwaged, includes supper

ORGANISED BY JEWS FOR SOCIAL ACTION, NSTE